Freedom Seekers Class 5 PM Room 300

No Personnel Meeting Today

Ron Melton Speaking 6 PM

Choir Notes... Practice will begin today at 4:45 PM. I hope to have the spring schedule for Choir Specials (including Easter). Unless you attend the Modern Worship Service, please join me up front in the choir seating for the Traditional Morning Worship Service. Hope to see you there! Dee Hutson, Worship Leader

Easy Ways to Help Our Church GROW...

- LIKE our Facebook Page
- SHARE our church events on Facebook and elsewhere
- Sit in the middle of a row to allow room for guests to take the end seats (they won't climb over)
- Sit toward the front to allow room for guests to sit in the back (they already feel all eyes on are on them)
- Greet each guest like they were your long-lost-friend
- Spread the news about the activities at our church
- Be Flexible-in a growing church everything can change, except the message
- Walk a guest to a Sunday School class or worship area
- Invite a lost person to church, sit with them and pray they will hear the message
- Take out or invite over, for a meal, someone who has only come a few times to our church

Keith Coons Speaking January 30, 7 PM

Men's Breakfast February 2, 8 AM

The Trustees voted to install a door in front of the Family Life Center. This will be underneath or close to the window near the piano and organ. The purpose of this door will be for easier handicap access-no stairs and very small ramp to get into the building. The cost will be approximately $5000. If you would like to underwrite all or part of this please see Judy Dickey

Souper Bowl Sunday February 3

Bring soup, canned goods or other non-perishable items for Grand Oak Mission.

Meals on Mission

Meals on Mission is a freezer ministry of FBC Brookline. Bebe Young is heading up this ministry and is looking for those interested in helping. Meals are made and frozen, then given to folks who are sick or home from the hospital or are needy. Please call Bebe Young at 379-5618 and let her know you would like to help her in this ministry.
